Critical Conversations
A space for informal, unfussy, intellectual dialogue

Thursday, May 2, 2019, 12:15 to 1:30 p.m.
University Library, Room UL1116
Open to all IUPUI faculty, staff and students - Light refreshments provided

- Learn about the purpose of the IUPUI White Racial Literacy Project to promote racial equity and a more welcoming and inclusive campus.
- Join our facilitators who will share perspectives and lessons learned following a year of events, workshops and activities designed to provide a reflective opportunity for white people within the IUPUI community to unpack misconceptions and misinformation about structural racism and realize their potential to facilitate change.

Facilitated by:
Lori Patton Davis, Ph.D., Professor, IU School of Education
Dennis L. Rudnick, Ph.D., Associate Director of Multicultural Education and Research, IUPUI Multicultural Center

Learn more about WRLP @ IUPUI at https://wrlpiupui.weebly.com/

Questions regarding Critical Conversations: Contact Dan Griffith at dgriffit@iupui.edu (317-278-4230)